

SCOTT BISCI—Eastern Lawfit Winner

Scott attended Moravian College in Bethlehem, PA. and went on to graduate from William Paterson University in Wayne, NJ in 1997 with a Bachelor of Arts in Sociology/Anthropology with a concentration in Criminal Justice. Scott has been a police Sergeant with the Lopatcong Township Police Department in New Jersey for the past 13 years. Scott has been a member of the Warren County Tactical Response Team for 11 years, has worked with the county Narcotics Task Force and is currently an instructor in radar, OC, defensive tactics, and active shooter response.

Scott has competed in bench press competitions, Toughest Competitor Alive at The World Police and Fire games, Three Tough Mudders, and recently finished the Myrtle Beach Bi-Lo Half Marathon before winning the Eastern Regional Lawfit Challenge in 2012.

Scott trains daily and recently started cross fit training. "I enjoy coaching youth softball and currently play in two summer leagues. Perhaps my biggest challenge is balancing work, training, and raising two teenage daughters."
